

Torts in Commercial Law Conference

Faculty of Law, University of New South Wales

Friday 17th - Saturday 18th December 2010, Sydney, Australia

Torts in Commercial Law is an international conference exploring the nature and operation of the common law of torts in commercial law.

The speakers for Torts in Commercial Law are leaders in tort scholarship and practice drawn from the highest ranks of the judiciary, academy and legal profession. The conference focuses on future challenges for commercial lawyers posed by the law of torts. Torts in Commercial Law is the third in the series of highly successful events including the Fusion Conference (2004) and the Restitution in Commercial Law Conference (2007).

Venues include the Art Gallery of New South Wales and the Intercontinental Hotel, Sydney. This event is suitable for compliance with your MCLE and CPD obligations. For more information and registration please visit www.torts.unsw.edu.au.

Participants include

Convenors

Associate Professor Simone Degeling

(University of New South Wales)

Professor James Edelman (University of Oxford)

from the Judiciary

Justice Allsop (President, New South Wales Court of Appeal)

Justice Ball (Supreme Court of New South Wales)

Chief Justice French AC (High Court of Australia)

Justice Hammond (New Zealand Court of Appeal)

Lord Hoffmann (House of Lords)

from the Academy and the Legal Profession

Associate Professor Kit Barker (University of Queensland)

Professor Andrew Burrows QC (University of Oxford)

Professor Lewis Klar QC (University of Alberta)

Professor Harold Luntz (University of Melbourne)

Mr Malcolm McCusker AO QC (Chambers of Malcolm McCusker QC)

Professor Barbara McDonald (University of Sydney)

Professor Mitchell McInnes (University of Alberta)

Associate Professor Jason Neyers (University of Western Ontario)

Professor Jane Stapleton (Australian National University)

Professor Robert Stevens (University College London)

Professor Jenny Steele (University of York)

Professor Stephen Todd (University of Canterbury)

Mr William Swadling (University of Oxford)

Professor Prue Vines (University of New South Wales)

Conference Partners

FACULTY OF LAW

Allens Arthur Robison

www.torts.unsw.edu.au