

NEW FROM OXFORD

THREE ESSAYS ON TORTS

CLARENDON LAW LECTURES

Jane Stapleton

30%
OFF

This book of essays champions tort scholarship that puts judges at centre stage: what they do, how they understand their role, the heterogeneous reasons they give for their decisions, and their constitutional responsibility to identify and articulate the ‘living’ and ‘evolving’ common law. Three Essays on Torts illustrates the advantages and pay-offs of the reflexive style of scholarship by showing how it illuminates key features of tort law. These essays, based on the 2018 Clarendon Law Lectures given at Oxford University, ultimately demonstrate the value of scholarship that ‘takes the judges seriously’.

FEATURES

- Champions ‘reflexive tort scholarship’ focusing on the role of the judiciary
- Explains why descriptive claims of Grand Theories of tort law are doomed to fail
- Advances a conception of a ‘living’ common law, evolving with changes in society and independently of institutional pronouncements

January 2021 (UK) | February 2021 (US)

£80.00 £56.00 | $99.00 $69.30

Hardback | 128 pages

Jane Stapleton QC FBA is an Emeritus Fellow of Balliol College and Master of Christ’s College Cambridge.

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Order online at www.oup.com/academic with promotion code ALAUTHC4 to save 30%