

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF LAW

Remembering Stephen Waddams: Scholar, Teacher and Colleague

The Faculty of Law will host an event on February 29, 2024, 4:00 to 6:30 pm, to honour the outstanding contribution made by our late colleague Stephen Waddams. After studying at Cambridge, the University of Toronto and the University of Michigan, Stephen joined the Faculty of Law as a professor in 1968 and went on to inspire generations of students over his remarkable 55-year career. He was an outstanding teacher, an internationally recognized scholar of contract law and legal history, and a warm and generous colleague.

Commemorating the Career and Contributions of Professor Stephen Waddams \(LLB 1967\)

Program chaired by Dean Jutta Brunnée, with presentations by:

The Rt. Hon. Beverley McLachlin (Hon. LLD 1995)

Stephen Waddams: Impact on the Judiciary and the Development of the Law

Professor Emeritus John D. McCamus (LLB 1968), Osgoode Hall Law School

Stephen Waddams and The Law of Contracts

Professors Carol Rogerson (LLB 1982) and Martha Shaffer (LLB 1987)

Stephen Waddams as a Professor and Colleague

Professor Jim Phillips

Stephen Waddams and Legal History

The Hon. Robert Sharpe (LLB 1970)

Stephen Waddams and Remedies

Reception to follow, with informal remarks from:

The Hon. Frank Iacobucci (Hon LLD 1989) Professor

Martin Friedland (LLB 1958)

Professor Arnold Weinrib LLB 1965)

Hosted by the Dean's Office

RSVP Now

February 29, 2024

4:00 – 6:30 p.m.

Jackman Law Building

Faculty of Law, 78 Queen's Park

Toronto, ON M5S 2C5